JUDAICA GALLERY

November is Veterans Month, and in honor of our veterans, the National Museum of American Jewish Military History has selected the Judaica Gallery at Beth Shalom Congregation to display an exciting traveling exhibit...The Hall of Heroes. This exhibit will include American Jewish Recipients of the Medal of Honor, Distinguished Service Cross, the Navy Cross and the Air Force Cross.

The Hall of Heroes tells the story of the Jewish-American heroes who have earned these high honors. Their stories are among the many examples of bravery and gallantry shown by Jews in the United States Armed Forces. The bravest of the brave, these men stand as the supreme example of the heroism and sacrifice that protect our liberty and freedom.

The following individuals and their stories will be on display in the Judaica Gallery during the month of November: Benjamin Levy, David Urbansky, Leopold Karpeles, Abraham Cohn, Simon Suhles, Samuel Marguillies, Sydney Gumpertz, Benjamin Kaufman, William Saroelson, Raymond Zussman, Isador Jachman, Jack Jacobs, John Lee Levitow, and Ben Solomon. The exhibit is open to the community at Beth Shalom, Monday thru Friday, from 10:00 to 3:00.
