

Salute to Jewish Military Chaplains

From the Civil War to Operation Desert Storm

Above:
Portable ark and altar used by Rabbi
Martin Weitz during World War II

Above:
Rosh Hashanah observed in Rothschild Synagogue in Paris,
1944--the first open services since Nazi occupation

Above:
Rabbi Roland B. Gittelsohn at services at Iwo Jima
Collection of Roland Gittelsohn, NMAJMH

Below:
Postage stamp commemorating the four chaplains who died when a German torpedo attack sank the U.S.S. Dorchester

Above:
Chaplain Alexander D. Goode, who died when the U.S.S. Dorchester sank